

VOICE 2022: CMIM UNVEILS FINALISTS OF THE ART SONG DIVISION

Montreal, June 3, 2022 - After a day of rest for the competitors and the presentation of three masterclasses by the members of our prestigious jury, the six semifinalists of the Art Song division returned to the stage this Friday. Accompanied by their pianists, they again demonstrated their undeniable talent. It is under the warm applause of the public present in the Bourgie Hall that this semifinal round ended.

The deliberation of the Voice 2022 jury which took place thereafter concluded with the nomination of three finalists whose talent particularly moved. A draw once again determined the order in which these competitors will take the stage.

Finalists - ART SONG

In order of appearance

The Art Song Division finale is presented by Alfid Services Immobiliers Ltée

On Sunday June 5, 2 p.m. at the Bourgie Hall of the Musée des Beaux-arts de Montréal:

1. Bryan Murray, baritone (United States)
2. Harriet Burns, soprano (United Kingdom)
3. Meredith Wohlgemuth, soprano (United States)

A PRIZE FOR COLLABORATIVE PIANISTS

The CMIM is pleased to announce that a new award has been introduced this year: the Lupien Family Foundation will award among eligible pianists the John Newmark Prize for Best Collaborative Pianist ($5,000). With the aim of highlighting the important work of pianists who specialize in piano accompaniment, this recognition is added to the impressive list of prizes and awards intended for Voice 2022 competitors.

ABOUT CMIM

The Concours musical international de Montréal (CMIM) aims to discover and help the world's most promising young singers, violinists and pianists. The CMIM is the only international competition in North America to be held annually and to feature three disciplines (piano, voice, and violin) in a three-year rotation. Since its first edition dedicated to Voice in 2002, 3,700 hopefuls have applied, and some 500 competitors have been welcomed to perform before enthusiastic audiences in Montreal.
